RULES

2024 Film competition rules

Point 1: Place and date of the Festival

The 33rd Bird and Nature Festival will be held from April 20th to 28th, 2024 in Abbeville and in the Bay of Somme – Picardie – FRANCE.

Point 2: Theme

The Festival offers a selection of films dealing mainly with birds in their natural environment, wildlife, environment or natural history generally speaking. Feature films or commercials are not allowed. A feature film shot outdoors but which main theme isn't one of the above won't be selected.

Professional films must be of 26 to 100 minutes duration.

This competition is also open to amateur wildlife filmmakers who do sound recording, shooting or editing as a hobby and on a non-profit basis.

Amateur films must be of 3 to 13 minutes duration.

If the filmmakers are attending the Festival, they will be allowed to say a few words to introduce their film before the screening. A translator will assist if needed.

All amateur films are screened on a special night.

SELECTION

Point 3: Formats

Admitted for the preselection

- ☛ URL to the streaming website of your choice (YouTube, Vimeo, company website...)
- ☛ USB stick

Admitted only for the competition (the films will be shown in 1920 X 1080 full HD)

Apple Pro Res 422 files are highly recommended.

Only for films available in their French version:

- ☛ A digital original master file
- (☛ or for amateurs only, a digital video file to be submitted on a USB memory stick or an external hard drive (that will be returned after use). Other formats allowed: .mpg 4 or .mov codec H 264) With 2 stereo sound tracks.

For films available in any other foreign language version: 2 files of the film

- ☛ A digital original video master file mixed with the sounds and original commentary
- ☛ And a digital original master file of the international version with the sounds and effects WITHOUT the commentary with a 48Khz .wav sound (default format) at a decent rate.

For the nominated foreign (non-French) films, if necessary, the Festival may meet the cost of translation, sub-titling, and / or dubbing. The entrant authorizes the Festival to proceed to translation, sub-titling, and / or dubbing.

The digital files will have to be uploaded on the Festival's platform as requested in the selection e-mail. Alternately, they may be made available for download by the entrant from a platform of their choice or sent on an external hard drive that will be returned after the event.

The film may be shown in different venues equipped with various screening materials (Abbeville City Theatre and Cr cy-en-Ponthieu, Fort-Mahon and Abbeville movie theatres). To meet these needs, the Festival might create DCPs of the French version if the entrant can't provide one.

The entrant authorizes the Festival to burn Blu-Ray copies and / or create DCP so that the film is shown in its best version according to the venue.

Point 4:

Films can't be removed from selection after it has been officially announced.

Any number of productions may be entered per entrant, but a maximum of two can be selected for nomination. The cut-off date is 2021.

The Festival Committee may choose some unnominated productions to present them out of competition.

Copyright nor any other type of payment can be claimed for screening of nominated nor unnominated films.

All decisions from the Festival Committee, Preliminary Jury and Final Jury are final and cannot be challenged.

REGISTRATION AND SCHEDULE

Point 5: Entry deadline and documents to be included

Registration is to be made online until NOVEMBER 6th 2023.
